

A Lasting Legacy:

Leaving a Gift in Your Will

Leaving a gift in your will is a wonderful way to support the causes that you care about long after you are gone. L'Arche Hamilton relies on the generosity of individuals like you to continue our important work, and a gift in your will is one of the most significant and lasting ways you can help us achieve our mission.

What is a Gift in Your Will?

A gift in your will is a way to leave a lasting legacy by donating a portion of your estate to L'Arche Hamilton after you pass away. It is a simple process that can make a huge impact on our organization and the people we serve.

Why Leave a Gift to L'Arche Hamilton?

By leaving a gift to us, you are supporting a cause that is close to your heart and making a real difference in the lives of those with intellectual disabilities we serve. Your gift will help us continue to provide permanent homes and vital support to those who need it most, ensuring that our work can continue for many years to come.

How to Leave a Gift in Your Will?

Leaving a gift in your will is a straightforward process that should be done in consultation with your legal advisor. You can choose to leave a specific amount or a percentage of your estate, whichever is the best choice for you. Here is some information and sample wording your lawyer may need:

"I bequeath ____% of the residue of my estate to L'Arche Hamilton, charitable number 131916488 RR 0001."

Other Ways to Give: Giving through Life Insurance or Your Retirement Plan

It may be possible for you to name L'Arche Hamilton as a beneficiary (in full or with a designated percentage), of your life insurance or your retirement plan, RRSP or RRIF. You can discuss these options with your lawyer and financial advisor.
